Greetings to you! I'm excited to collaborate with you in carrying out our Mission statement at the Parish. May we as Catholics of our Parish continue to seek to grow as disciples of Jesus and make disciples for Jesus! I'm glad to let you know about an opportunity we have available now. Our Parishes have purchased a subscription to Formed.org. It is a Catholic online resource with awesome faith videos, movies, and audio talks that you can access for free on any device. I think this can be a good blessing for us at Church and at home as well. I wanted to take this time to also thank you for your support of the Archbishop's Call to Share in any way you can to help the various groups in our Archdiocese continue their good work. I hope you all have a good week! God bless, Father Clayton

Marriage Minute

"The Super Bowl of Life" It's kickoff time! When you hear that, you are probably thinking of the Super Bowl, which is one of the most "sacred" events of our secular culture. However, in addition to crowning a football champion this weekend, it is also time to kick off National Marriage Week. While National Marriage Week does not have the pomp and circumstance that the football game has, perhaps it should. Super Bowl Sunday is a great opportunity to gain insight on how to strive for excellence in our own marriage. What if we approached our marriage in the same way these incredible athletes approached this game? To kick off your more intentional marriage, consider the Living in Love retreat at Holy Spirit in Overland Park Feb 10-11. www.archkck.org/livinginlove.

World Marriage Day Mass

TIRELESS DISCIPLESHIP

The stories we've been hearing these weeks come from the very first chapter of Mark, and they show us the public ministry of Jesus in its infancy. Today's account shows some of the strain or adjustment of his new life of preaching the reign of God, healing the sick, and casting out demons. Notice that after sunset, when darkness ended the workday, people brought the sick and possessed to Jesus. The following day he rose before dawn to get away by himself to pray, but to no avail. Simon Peter and the others don't just look for him, they pursue him, filled with the fervor that his ministry has incited. With the self-sacrificing example he gave until the end of his earthly life, he tells his followers that this is his whole purpose. Through Mark, he is also telling the early church, and he is telling us, that this is our purpose, our vocation: to be tireless in our pursuit of proclaiming the Good News, and in bringing the healing, reconciling touch of Christ to the world.
