SUBJECT: NEW DIRECTIVES RELATED TO LITURGY AND HEALTH CONCERNS
 Effective Wednesday, March 11, 2020, Archbishop Naumann has directed all pastors to adopt the following changes at their parish during the celebration of the Mass:

- Drain the holy water fonts
- Suspend the exchange of the sign of peace
- Suspend the distribution of the Precious Blood during Holy Communion
- All those who serve at the altar should wash their hands thoroughly before and after Mass
- Clergy to avoid shaking hands before or after Mass
- Reinforce procedures for having extraordinary ministers sanitize their hands prior to distributing Holy Communion
- Clergy and extraordinary ministers should not touch those in the communion line who do not receive
- No hand-holding during the Lord's Prayer
- Greeters to avoid handshakes
- In general avoid all physical contact
- Sanitize hymnals and pews on a regular basis
- Sanitize church door handles before and after Mass
- Sanitize restrooms regularly
- Provide hand sanitizer at all entrances
- Keep the gifts of bread and wine covered on the credence table in the sanctuary – no offertory gifts procession
- Ensure that all vessels used are properly sanitized per the manufacturer's instructions after each Mass
- If possible, do the collection in a manner that limits the number of hands touching the basket
- Ask the faithful to not attend Mass if they are sick.

The Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas has made these recommendations mandatory, and they supersede the recommendations issued previously on February 27, 2020. Additional information may be obtained on the archdiocesan website: <http://archkcks.com/coronavirus>.

Marriage Minute

"Are you willing to die?"
 This week, St. Paul reminds us that, "While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." As married people, we are called to imitate Jesus by laying down our lives for our spouses, a theme that runs through many of our most cherished love stories. While we see great nobility in one spouse taking a bullet for the other, this is not the normal way we are called to live this out.
 If we are willing to die for each other literally, we must be willing to die to ourselves in little ways... while our spouse is still a sinner. Here are some ideas: • Pick up those socks without comment. • Answer a bad attitude with lavish affirmation. • Do one of your spouse's chores without getting noticed. • Seek understanding instead of the "last word." • Listen to your spouse without trying to "fix the problem." Small acts done with intention and with great love make the biggest difference: www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com.

New End-of-Life Resource Guide is Now Available

The Ethics Council that serves Archbishop Naumann has produced a comprehensive resource for end-of-life planning titled "Catholic Guide For-End-Of Life and Establishing of Advance Directives". The purpose of the guide is to assist the faithful in making wise decisions about complex treatments in grave illness or as life's end approaches in accordance with the teachings of our Catholic faith. It also includes two Appendices for a Durable Power of Attorney and an Advance Directive form.
