Marriage Minute

We spend a good percentage of our lives working out practical household details: Who is driving? How do we fix that? This weekend, the disciples are dealing with a dispute in the community, and, like us, they came up with a very practical solution. Our faith is deep and rich, but sometimes, the Holy Spirit answers our prayers with simple problem-solving. Could your marriage use some similar strategies? - A means of communicating feelings in a safe way that will bring you closer. - A powerful way to break a habit of criticism. - A process to heal hurts quickly and effectively (without making them worse!). - A way to make decisions while preserving a tender atmosphere. We teach these skills in Every Day in Love! Register now for June: www.archkck.org/everyday

THE TRUTH, GOODNESS, AND BEAUTY OF MARRIAGE

The Beauty of God's Plan for Marriage and Sexuality: There is a beauty that enters into our lives and world when we say "yes" to embracing real, heroic love. Join us May 7th from 7:00 to 8:00pm, at St. Michael the Archangel Church, Leawood. All are welcome...married or single! Find out more at <https://stmichaelcp.org/what-is-marriage>

LIFELONG SERVICE

"I am going fishing." What an announcement! If asked who made it, and not told it was a Bible quote, we might guess "Grandpa" or "Uncle Fred," or admit, "I said that last summer!" But it is a Bible quote, from today's Gospel. The person who said it also once declared, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Yes, it's Peter! So today's announcement seems quite the comedown. Last Sunday Jesus said, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." But Peter seems determined to return to his pre-apostolic occupation, until Jesus intervenes, making Peter's later announcement deeper, "Lord, you know that I love you," and Peter's apostolic calling clearer, "Tend my sheep." Peter does so. Acts presents the consequences: Peter declares, "We must obey God rather than men." As Revelation proclaims, "Worthy is the Lamb"—to receive Peter's lifelong service, and ours.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Gospel today sees Peter and his colleagues after the Resurrection, returning to Galilee and resuming the family business. They are fishing by night. Although it is true that fish feed by night, the mention of darkness here is more about the human spirit than it is about fishing advice. Modern life keeps darkness effectively under control; much of the world has been glowing radiantly through the night for a century. Yet just as surely as the Risen Christ breaks into Peter's fishing, so does he break into the usual patterns of our own darkness, electric lights notwithstanding. It is Easter, and we are the people of the light.

In our tradition, Evening Prayer, celebrated in monasteries, parishes, cathedrals, and homes everywhere, is a kind of solemn protest against the darkness and its claims, an act of praise for our light-bearing God, and a commitment to carrying that light forward. Sunset is a turning point of our day, felt less acutely in an electrified world, but still an effective reminder that one day darkness overtakes us all. Yet our Eastering has taught us in a hundred ways that the victory belongs to the Bearer of Light. Easter summons us to transform our everyday "blackouts," perhaps in a way as simple as a whispered prayer of thanks at evening for the blessings of the day.
