Marriage Minute

Do you have enough joy?

Very few people would say, "I have enough joy in my life and my marriage." If you want more joy, Jesus gives us the path to follow in this week's Gospel. Laying down our life for our spouse is the simple, albeit difficult path to unbridled joy. Many of us would "die" for our spouse if it literally meant surrendering our life so our spouse could live, but we have a much more difficult time living for our spouse and surrendering our will day in and day out in small things like:

Listening to our spouse with full attention • Offering an encouraging word instead of criticism • Turning off the TV and having a conversation

Pastor's note:

Prayer is really just talking with God. In prayer, we speak and listen to God. We speak to God with our concerns and thanks. We can also offer formal prayers like the Our Father and Hail Marys. We listen to God speak to us as we reflect on His Word or in a good Catholic spiritual book on Scripture and Faith. We can take that encouragement and help we receive with us through the day. Schedule in at least 10-15 minutes of quiet prayer with God each day. Here are some resources for your prayer: The Bible, a Catholic edition. The Gospels can especially be helpful as they are about Christ directly. Some devotionals can be helpful to break open the Word such as Word Among Us, Magnificat, or a series of books called In Conversation with God. Also, online you can sign up with Regnum Christi daily meditations to receive emails of the daily Gospel and reflections on that Gospel to apply to your life. Just as we talk with others to get to know them, let us talk with God in prayer to better get to know God and grow closer to God!
