Please Pray for the Sick
 If you are ill or know of someone who is ill and should be included in our prayers, please email cvitt@miamilinn Catholics.org

Please submit bulletin announcements to cvitt@miamilinn Catholics.org by Tuesday at 12pm.

Pastor's note:
 Greetings to everyone!
 Archbishop Naumann will be having a virtual conference with all priests on Tuesday May 5th to discuss with us about gradually transitioning back to public Mass with precautions. We will still have to follow the crowd number guidelines and the other guidelines as well. I will try to keep you posted as to all that information. As we enter in to the month of May, we are in a month of Mary in which we honor her in a special way. Consider placing flowers before a Statue of Mary that you might have or Crowning your Mary statue with flowers. The Rosary is a good prayer anytime, but especially during this month. May Mary intercede for us to God that we might safely return back to our Church and daily life.
 God bless, Father Clayton

Drive Thru Confession! Car Wash for your Soul!
 Yes, seriously! It is actually one of the safest ways to still continue with making the Sacrament available at this time. It is certainly not ideal but it can work so you can still receive the Sacrament. The Archdiocese in their new guidelines suggests this as a possibility.
 How it works?
 All regularly scheduled private confession times will now be outside. I will set up a chair in the parking lot. Just look for me.

(I'll be in my car if it is raining).
 When it is your turn drive up while maintaining the recommended 6 feet distance.
 Other cars should stay back until their turn so as not to hear what is said.
 If there are several people in the same car such as kids, you can park and walk up to me one by one while maintaining the six feet distance between us for both of our safety.
(Bring an umbrella just in case!)
 Thanks for your patience and understanding during these difficult times.

Scam notice
 As you probably know, people will be receiving monetary funds from the government due to the Coronavirus. There is a scam in which someone is calling saying they are from the government and asking for personal information in regards to this monetary matter. It is a scam so please don't give away personal information over the phone from anyone claiming to be from the government or the Church either.
 Thank you, Father Clayton

TODAY'S READINGS
First Reading — All peoples called by God will receive the gift of the Spirit if they repent and are baptized (Acts 2:14a, 36-41).
Psalm — The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want (Psalm 23).
Second Reading — Once we were like straying sheep; but now we have been returned to the shepherd, our guardian (1 Peter 2:20b-25).
Gospel — The shepherd leads the sheep out into pastures of abundant life (John 10:1-10).

IN NEED OF A SHEPHERD
 For a while it was very fashionable to own pigs as pets. The publicity surrounding these creatures informed us that they were—contrary to their popular image—very clean animals, and also quite smart. Sad to say, sheep will most likely never enjoy this sort of domestic vogue. They are neither clean nor smart and are largely defenseless when left on their own, even in large numbers. The biblical image of us as the flock of sheep is not a particularly flattering one. Sheep without a shepherd are truly sad, because they most likely will perish either from their inability to fend for themselves or from their lack of defenses against predators. Placing ourselves in the heart of this unflattering image can reinforce our faith. Until we come to a profound realization of how much we need a shepherd, we cannot appreciate how deeply blessed we are to have been given a Shepherd, one who laid down his life for us and was raised to life eternal in the Spirit, so he might guide us and we might follow him in faith forever.
